

RadcliffesLeBrasseur

Are you ready for the changes to Mental Health Law?

Tuesday 23rd September 2008

The Mental Health Act 2007 shortly brings into force many of the amendments to the existing mental health legislation. This Seminar will review the key changes and discuss the implications of these. Topics to be covered will include:

- The new definitions of mental disorder and medical treatment
- The new appropriate treatment test
- Supervised community treatment
- Consent to treatment
- Changes in professional roles
- A summary of the other miscellaneous changes

If you have any questions to raise before the seminar, please contact Andrew Parsons at andrew.parsons@rlb-law.com.

Demand for places at this seminar is likely to be high and there is therefore a charge of £50.00 (including £7.45 vat) payable in advance for all delegates. Please make cheques payable to RadcliffesLeBrasseur and post to the 5 Great College Street address.

Please note this Seminar is not suitable for delegates who have already attended our recent presentations on the 2007 Act.
